

Dr. Georgios J. Foutsitzis(MD) borned in Thessaloniki. He graduated from the 20th General High School of Thessaloniki (1992). He completed his studies at a recognized Private Technical Vocational School with honors in the specialty: " Dental Technician" (1996-1997). After tickets Panhellenic Examinations, introduced in ATEI(Higher Technological Institution) - Department of Medical Laboratory, completed his studies (2001) with honors. After his graduation of technological studies in Medical Laboratory Science continued his postgraduate studies at the Higher School Robert De Sorbon-France, on the subject of microbiology and became postgraduated (Dea) in 2005. In 2012 he became Bsc graduated in Natural Medicine from the Center for Natural Studies, Institute for Natural Medicine. He was a member of national and international organizations abroad. He attended seminars, wrote articles in general health magazines Also he worked as an instructor hourly paid professor at accredited private educational institute training, named: P.I.V.E- PASTER (Thessaloniki-Greece). He is a certified instructor in E.KE.PI.S. He also worked as a medical laboratory technologist (seasonal) at Center Veterinary Institutions of Thessaloniki Laboratory of Transmissible Spongiform Encephalopathy Institute of Infectious and Parasitic Diseases, Thessaloniki- Greece. He is currently Professor of Titulaire in Microbiology at Higher School Robert De Sorbon-France since 2010.

In 2013 he completed his phd in Biomolecular Pathology at the same Higher School(Ecole Superieure Robert De Sorbon). At the same year he became graduated from the Faculty of Postgraduate Medical Studies- International University of Fundamental Studies, with the award of Doctor in Medicine. He is Director at International Council of Reflexologists and was member in good standing at Refloxologists Association of America(2014).

Today he is an active IBMS Liaison Director for International Accreditation(account: 1043717, www.ibms.us) and active member of Class II - Medicine of the European Academy of Sciences and Arts(2015).

He is also physician in Ukraine since 2010(Ukrainian Medical Council- DORA- FAIMER).